

Email 1:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Safe	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This email is a casual conversation between two individuals about video game trailers from Games Con.• There are no links, attachments, or requests for sensitive information.• No indicators of malicious activity are present.

Email 2:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Malicious	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This email claims to be from "Venture.ru" regarding a OneDrive action required. It includes a link labeled "UPDATE YOUR ACCOUNT" which is a common phishing tactic.• The sender domain is also not a trusted Microsoft domain. This email should be classified as malicious.

Email 3:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Malicious	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This email contains a link to "https://www.faceRook.com.opt/login.htm", which is a deceptive URL designed to appear similar to Facebook.• The misspelling of "facebook" as "faceRook" is a clear indicator of phishing.• This email should be classified as malicious.

Email 4:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Safe	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This email is a forwarded message regarding a gaming headset offer from Drop (formerly Massdrop).• It contains no links or attachments designed to steal information or compromise the user.• No indicators of malicious activity are present.

Email 5:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Malicious	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This email is a phishing attempt using social engineering tactics.• The sender falsely claims to be an FBI agent and requests access to your email account under the pretense of passing critical intelligence.• No verification or official contact is provided.

Email 6:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Safe	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This email is a professional communication between colleagues at ANZ regarding project updates.• The sender's email domain matches the organization, and the content does not contain any suspicious links or requests.

Email 7:

Is this email Safe or Malicious?	My Analysis
Malicious	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• This email is likely a phishing attempt.• The sender's email address is suspicious, and the provided link uses "hxxp" and a non-standard domain, indicating a possible malicious website.• No credible or verifiable source is evident.